University Faculty Forum on

Diversity in the Classroom:
Faculty/Student Interaction

Wednesday, October 18, 4:30 - 6:00 p.m.
Hollis E. Cornell Auditorium, Goldwin Smith Hall

"Hang In There and Be Tough"
A vignette by the Cornell Interactive Theatre Ensemble that explores the question of responsibility for a productive classroom climate across differences. This interactive program will provide an opportunity for broad discussion from multiple points of view about faculty/student interaction.

Moderator: Robert L. Harris, Jr.,
Vice Provost for Diversity and Faculty Development

Facilitator: Vivian Relta
Associate Director of the Cornell Interactive Theatre Ensemble

Co-sponsored by:
J. Robert Cooke, Dean of the University Faculty, and
Robert L. Harris, Jr., Vice Provost for Diversity and Faculty Development

The Forum is Open to the Community