President’s response on Monday noon ➔ Charlie Walcott, Bill Fry
(previous request for extension of the response time)
➔ public on Monday afternoon

Previous conversations ➔ considerable time and effort
(report from ad hoc committee, Senate Resolution, report from HR, correspondence with diverse constituent groups, Resolution from UA.)
Dear faculty endorsers of the March 2010 resolution of the Faculty Senate (cc William Fry, Dean of the Faculty),

As you may be aware, most parents and teachers at the center have indicated that they are now very pleased with current conditions at the center, and I am certain that everyone can agree that this is a very positive development for Cornell. President Skorton has appealed to the community that “we go forward in a spirit of collegiality and civility.” I am sure you will all join me in hoping for the best at the Cornell Child Care Center, honoring the President’s request that the campus now come together in support of the center.

Best,

Steve
Observations (WEF):

- The most emotive issue that I’ve seen
- Much angst, much anger.
- Communication awkward/wanting
- There have been improvements
- There will be changes
- Some (not all) recommendations adopted
- Senate Resolution/ad hoc committee → big impact

Move forward with civility and mutual respect for all involved
CCCC needs to become an excellent facility best if we work together
